

“WEBLIOGRAPHY” (INTERNET SOURCES)

Central/South America:

<http://www.mnsu.edu/emuseum/prehistory/latinamerica/topics/writing.html>

This site states that the Incans has no writing system. Mayans used hieroglyphic symbols written on parchment to communicate.

<http://www.historyforkids.org/learn/literature/paper.htm>

This site contains a reference of the Aztec use of paper. The site states that the Aztecs independently developed paper at the same time as the Europeans.

<http://www.mathcs.duq.edu/~tobin/maya/>

This site describes the ways the Mayans used paper and contains a Mayan paper recipe. (This site contains challenging text. Ask your teacher for help, if you have trouble using it.)

<http://www.lost-civilizations.net/mayan-writing-codices.html>

This site states that the Mayans developed the only true Mesoamerican writing system.

<http://www.fi.edu/tfi/activity/comm/comm-2.html>

Maya, Aztec and Native American Communication

<http://tinyurl.com/oo54fr>

Aztec and Maya paper and book production

<http://www.crystalinks.com/incan.html>

Inca Civilization

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Aztec\_codices

Aztec Codices

North America: (Canada, United States)

http://encarta.msn.com/encyclopedia\_761570777\_39/native\_americans\_of\_north\_america.html

Native American Communications

http://www.teachervision.fen.com/tv/printables/0876287887\_43\_44.pdf

Native American Communications

<http://www.ontariosciencecentre.ca/scizone/e3/paper/whatis.asp>

History of paper

http://www.pulpanpaper.org/history\_of\_papermaking.shtml

History of paper making, Main and Canada

<http://www.sciencedaily.com/releases/2009/02/090204112237.htm>

Inuit communication trails