

“The Tell-Tale Heart”
VOCABULARY

Dull- not sharp	Vex- to annoy or bother
Acute- sharp	Cease- to come to an end
Dissimulation- disguised under fake appearance	Wane- to decrease gradually
Sufficient- good enough for what is needed	Hasty- to hurry or move quickly
Profound- deep thought/understanding	Scantling- an upright piece in the frame of a house or floor board
Sagacity- shrewdness; mental acuteness	Suave- smooth; agreeable; polite
Supposition- an assumption	Bade- to offer; say or tell (a greeting)
Vain- worthless; without success	Audacity- boldness
Perceive- understand (through the senses)	Fancy- something imagined or supposed
Crevice- a narrow crack/opening	Distinct- specific; unique; distinctive
Envelop- wrapped/covered	Vehemently- forcefulness of expression
Tattoo- a rhythmic tapping	Mockery- ridicule or mimic; make fun of
Refrain- to withhold; hold back oneself	Hypocritical- professing of beliefs or virtues one does not possess or follow through on

“The Tell-Tale Heart”
VOCABULARY

Dull- not sharp	Vex- to annoy or bother
Acute- sharp	Cease- to come to an end
Dissimulation- disguised under fake appearance	Wane- to decrease gradually
Sufficient- good enough for what is needed	Hasty- to hurry or move quickly
Profound- deep thought/understanding	Scantling- space beneath floor boards
Sagacity- shrewdness; mental acuteness	Suave- smooth; agreeable; polite
Supposition- an assumption	Bade- to offer; say or tell (a greeting)
Vain- worthless; without success	Audacity- boldness
Perceive- understand (through the senses)	Fancy- something imagined or supposed
Crevice- a narrow crack/opening	Distinct- specific; unique; distinctive
Envelop- wrapped/covered	Vehemently- forcefulness of expression
Tattoo- a rhythmic tapping	Mockery- ridicule or mimic; make fun of
Refrain- to withhold; hold back oneself	Hypocritical- professing of beliefs or virtues one does not possess or follow through on